11. Payment: Payment will be made through ECS to the firm only on satisfactory execution of the work as well as receipt of pre-receipted bill in triplicate. In case, any item is found to be not as per ordered specification or does not meet the requirement or found to be of substandard quality, the same shall be rejected and supplier should replace the same without extra charge within the specified delivery schedule.

If the printer/agency fails to deliver any or all of the goods within the period specified in the purchase order, the Department shall without prejudice to its other remedies, deduct as liquidated damage 5% on the price of the delayed goods for each and every week (part of the week shall be considered as full week) subject to maximum of 25% of the delayed supply value and the same shall be deducted from the bill(s) or any other payment due to the printer/party. Department shall be at liberty to terminate the agreement, cancel the order and may also forfeit the Security Deposit, in case, printer/vendor fails to deliver the finished items within the stipulated delivery period.

12. Arbitration:

If any dispute arises between the Parties hereto during the subsistence or thereafter, in any connection with the validity, interpretation, implementation or alleged material thereof any provision of Contract by one Party hereto has been legitimate, both Parties hereto shall endeavor to settle such disputes amicably. The attempt to bring about an amicable settlement is considered to have failed as soon as one of the Parties hereto, after reasonable attempts, which attempt shall continue for not less than 30 (thirty) days, give 15 days notice thereof to the other Party in writing.

The dispute shall be referred for adjudication through arbitration by a sole arbitrator who shall be technical person having the knowledge and experience of the trade, (to be appointed by the consent of both the parties). In case both the parties does not do not agree to appoint a sole arbitrator then in that case Secretary, DDA will appoint an Arbitrator under the provision of Arbitration and Conciliation (Amended) Act, 1996 w.r.t. appointment of Arbitrator shall apply and would be binding on both the parties. The parties hereto agree that the seat and place of adjudication by the Arbitrator shall be Delhi/New Delhi only.

It is also a term of this contract that if the contractor does not make any demand for appointment of arbitrator in respect of any claims in writing, as aforesaid within 90 days of receiving intimation from the Officer in Charge that the final bill is ready for the payment, the claim of the contractor, shall be deemed to have waived.

The arbitration proceedings shall be governed by the Arbitration and Conciliation Act., 2015 (No. 3/20160 effective from 23.10.2015 (an Act to amend the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996) and/or any statutory modifications or enactment thereof and the rules made there under and for the time being in force shall apply to the arbitration proceeding under this clause.

It is also a term of this contract that if any fees are payable to the arbitrator, these shall be equally paid by both the parties. Further "Where the arbitral award is for the payment of money no interest shall be payable on whole or any part of the money for any period till the date on which the award is made".

13. In the event of any dispute or disagreement under or in relation to this agreement or over the interpretation of any of the terms hereinabove contained or any claim or liability of the party, the same shall be referred to the sole arbitrator to be nominated by mutual consent of both parties therein. The intending party will serve notice in writing upon the other party notifying its intention for appointment of Arbitrator. Should both parties fail to agree on the mutual consent, then Department will appoint the sole Arbitrator. The provisions of Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996 will apply. The Arbitration proceedings will be held in New Delhi. The Arbitrator will give reasons for his award and the award passed by the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties herein. Such reference shall be deemed to be a submission to Arbitration under the Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 or of any modifications or reenactment there of including the rules framed there under.
14. Force Majeure: Notwithstanding the provision of the Clause 9, the firm shall not be liable for forfeiture of its security, liquidated damages or termination for breach, if and to the extent that, it's delay in performance or other failure to perform in its obligation under the agreement is the result of an even of Force Majeure. For purpose of this clause, "Force Majeure" means an event beyond the control of the firm and not involving the firm's fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not restricted to, act of the 'Department' either in its sovereign or contractual capacity wars or revolutions, fire, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions and freight embargoes. If the Force Majeure situation arises, the firm shall promptly notify the Department in writing, the firm shall continue to perform its obligation under the agreement as far as reasonable practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternate means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.
15. All disputes are subject to the jurisdiction of courts in the National Capital Territory of Delhi.
